Analysis | RFK Jr's 'history lesson' on Russia's invasion of Ukraine flunks the fact test

North Korea, supplier of long-range missiles Russia used to kill Ukrainian civilians, accuses US of 'escalation'

Claim: "The U.S. administration, which had kept itself aloof from the delivery of long-range missiles, saying that it did not encourage Ukraine's strike on the Russian mainland, has betrayed more clearly its true colors as a harasser of peace, aggravating war by providing Ukraine with such missiles. This time it has adopted such a mean policy as offering even long-range missiles for attacking the Russian territory to their lackeys."
