Fact check

From independent sources

No, Pentagon didn't say NJ drones 'not of earthly origin'

Claim: "The Pentagon has confirmed that the mysterious drones appearing across the globe are NOT of earthly origin."

Fake: American Hosts Laugh After Report on Ukrainian Army Losses

Claim: American Hosts Laugh After Report on Ukrainian Army Losses

Fact check by StopFake.org: This is fake because the video has been edited: the propagandists used an archival broadcast from the American KMAX 31 station from 2019, replacing the on-screen text and adding footage of a Ukrainian cemetery. The original clip shows a blooper involving an anchor that has nothing to do with news about Ukraine or the Pentagon.

Doctored news report used to push Kremlin propaganda

Claim: US news outlet ABC reported that one million Ukrainian soldiers have died on the battlefield.

Fact check by Education – Australian Associated Press: False. The claim is based on manipulated footage of an ABC News report, and official sources and independent estimates suggest far fewer casualties.

These photos don't show the drones reported in New Jersey

Claim: Photos show mysterious drones reported flying over parts of New Jersey in November and December 2024.

Fact check by PolitiFact: False
